

EQUIPMENT SECTION

The latest additions into the Bar Products & Services portfolio are the advanced range of die grinding, polishing and finishing machines. The machines are used extensively in house to provide consistent geometrical profiles that are essential for the modern high speed wire mills.

To eliminate costly set up times the process has been automated to reduce the operator input to a minimum.

Depending on the level of automation the loading system can be a manual version or the fully automated magazine feed.

INVESTOR IN PEOPLE